2. Enid Hoffman, Vice Chairman's Opening remarks:
   A. E. Hoffman led a discussion on challenging interviews
      a. Leslie Kennedy and E. Hoffman answered questions regarding how the interviews are scheduled and issues the committee had during their interviews.

   B. E. Hoffman explained that even though there will be a new membership committee forming for 2025-26, the current Membership Committee needs to stay engaged thru March for interviews and thru April for the Coffee 'N Chat.

   C. E. Hoffman also urged members of the committee to submit their names to be considered for this or any other committee when they receive the email to volunteer for committees.

   D. Enid Hoffman expressed gratitude to the volunteers that attend our monthly Coffee N Chat.
      a. Very successful: New members stay after the program to exchange contact information, forging new friendships.
      b. Our next Coffee 'N Chat will be on Thursday, February 13.
         - Volunteers are Peter Kolben, Cheryl Schulman, Roz Wolpov, Linda Singer, and Lynn Zolenge.
      c. Volunteers for March 6 are Susan Sklar, Murray Perelman and Ellen Edwards.
      d. Volunteers for April 3 are Roz Wolpov, Bruce Cohen and Lynn Zolenge

3. Leslie Kennedy, Membership Director Report:
   A. L. Kennedy discussed the Sales Numbers.
      a. Numbers are like last year- not only in the sales but also in the pending sales.
   B. Leslie reviewed the New Member party and asked for the suggestions and reviews.
      a. Committee thought the party was great and the new members were engaged.
      b. Discussion ensued regarding the flow of the crowd and the use of the Palm Garden.
   C. Educational Segment was presented by Leslie.
      a. Discussed Legacy Guest and offspring membership.

4. Open discussion of Events:
      a. Jonathan Schaub went on record to reflect the good leadership of Mark Haberman and also graciously commented on Enid Hoffman's six years on the board.
      b. Enid Hoffman thanked Leslie Kennedy for her hard work and dedication to BWCC.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:30 pm.
